

Discussion of final exam.

Thanks for all your work, this looks really great. I must admit, I am very impressed by how much effort everybody invested in this. I know neither the homeworks nor the exams were particularly easy, but I think the performance is very impressive – hence the 7 As.

As I said, 85% of the points gave you 100 % (i.e. without the 7* problem). Problem 1e seemed to cause some confusion, so I took that out, leaving a total of 53 points.

You can figure out your grade from below if you know your midterm and essay percentage:
